Disposition paper for the coursework 'Selection of premises for PyRes Automatic Theorem Prover'

Jannis Gehring

Student id: 6732014, course: INF22B

Baden Württemberg Cooperative State University (DHBW)

inf22115@lehre.dhbw-stuttgart.de

Contents

I. Short description of the work

- What is the topic of the work?
- What is the current situation?
- Which topic area is being handled?
- Which foundation and framework has to exist?
- What is the goal of the coursework?
- Which methods are going to be used?

II. Structure and Schedule

- Identification of key steps
- Milestones, consequences and chances of the milestones
- time schedule for finishing work and coursework
- First structure of coursework, including chapters and sub-chapters

III. Basic Literatur

- Proofs for the current situation
- Who has worked on similar topic areas?
- How does the coursework fit into the scientific landscape and what is new?
- What is being improved by the solution and how is this proven?

References